Programme

12.30 Registration

13.00 Greetings from DBC and EUROLIBRA

13.00 John Parsons (EUROLIBRA - UK)

CLIL and English-Speaking World Studies

CLIL is now seen as essential in language classes at all levels of education. However, the language teacher is often the one having to apply it as opposed to the subject teacher.

Practical help and guidance is here with a hands on approach to CLIL in Language Classes.

13.40 John Parsons (EUROLIBRA - UK)

Flexible Lovely Assorted Student Help!

Some books just seem to get students more interested in learning than others. Some books spoon feed, but do not challenge, others repeat and repeat and repeat – same type of exercises, approach, style, etc. Luckily for us teachers, there are also books that encourage students' self reflection on learning, critical thinking, encouraging them by acknowledging what they already know. Let's look at one of these latter types.

14.20 John Parsons (EUROLIBRA - UK)

Developing the Necessary Communication Skills for Today's International Business Environment.

Those with Russian ancestry have the highest concentration of millionaire households in America. The Russian American millionaire group has approximately $1.1 trillion, or nearly 5% of all the personal wealth in the USA. Still want to skip business English?

15.00 Questions and Answers, Attendance certificate, Certificates for gifts...

Each participant will receive gifts provided by ELI Publishing and EUROLIBRA Ltd.
